

Dr. Dina Miqdadi
Psychologist
Contact: dina.miqdadi@gmail.com

Dina Miqdadi, DPsych is a chartered member of the British Psychological Society, a licensed Counselling Psychologist in Cyprus, and a certified AEDP therapist. She grew up in Jordan, lived in the US, the UK, and she is now settled in the Mediterranean island of Cyprus.

She has worked with various NGOs and INGOs with Arabic speaking refugees, and has worked with private clinics and a psychiatric hospital in Jordan. For the past 6 years she has had her own private practice in Cyprus, in which she mostly works remotely with people in the Middle East. and volunteers to run an AEDP informed group for Arabic speaking refugees in Cyprus with a grass roots NGO named “together”.

Dr Dina Miqdadi joined the AEDP institute in June 2018, and since then has been in weekly supervision with Dr Diana Fosha. She presented her work alongside AEDP colleagues at the SEPI conference in Lisbon in 2019, and she has presented on working with a survivor of domestic violence in three AEDP trainings in 2021.